

version for SSA chorus and piano composed for the San Francisco Girls Chorus, Susan McMane, conductor, and the San Francisco Boys Chorus, Ian Robertson, conductor for the Presidential Inauguration of Barack Obama, January 20, 2009 TTBB version commissioned by the Turtle Creek Chorale, Jonathan Palant, conductor premiere performance June 25, 2009, Meyerson Symphony Center, Dallas, Texas

An Exhortation

for TTBB Chorus unaccompanied

Barack Obama
from his Victory Speech
November 4, 2008

David Conte

Moderately, not too slow ♩ = 80

mf

Tenors

Basses

A - mer - i - ca, — we have come so far. — We have seen so much. —

A - mer - i - ca, — we have come so far. — We have seen so much. —

7

— But there is so much more to do. — Let us ask our-selves:

— But there is so much more to do. — Let us ask our-selves:

12

If our chil - dren should live to see The next cen - tu - ry, — What

If our chil - dren should live to see The next cen - tu - ry, — What

A bit faster ♩ = 96

f

16

pro-gress will we have made? — This is our chance to an-swer that call. —

pro-gress will we have made? — This is our chance to an-swer that call. —

22 re - af - firm that fun - da - men - tal

This is our time To re - af - firm that fun - da - men - tal truth That out of

This is our time To re - af - firm that fun - da - men - tal truth That out of 28 rit. First tempo ♩ = 80 mf espress.

man - y, we are one; That while we breathe, we hope; And where we are

man - y, we are one; That while we breathe, we hope; And where we are

34 f

met with doubt, We will res - pond with that time - less creed

met with doubt, We will res - pond with that time - less creed

38 broadening

That sums up the spir - it of a peop - le:

That sums up the spir - it of a peop - le:

42 Majestically, a bit broader ♩ = 72 ff

Yes, we can, yes, we can, yes, we can.

Yes, we can, yes, we can, yes, we can.